

VOTER REGISTRATION

Register To Vote if You:

- Are a United States citizen,
- Are 16 years of age
- Are a Colorado resident for 22 days immediately before the election at which you intend to vote,
- Are not serving a sentence of confinement or detention for a felony conviction.

How To Register at GoVoteColorado.gov

Colorado law allows you to register to vote through Election Day. If you have a Colorado Driver's license, a Colorado ID card or social security number you may register online at GoVoteColorado.gov. How you register to vote impacts how you receive your ballot.

In order to receive your ballot by mail:

- Register to vote or update your voter registration online at GoVoteColorado.gov through the 8th day before Election Day.
- Submit an application through the mail, at a voter registration agency, or at a local driver's license examination facility through the 8th day before Election Day.
- Submit an application through a voter registration drive no later than 22 days before Election Day.

If you miss the above deadlines, you may appear in person at a Voter Service and Polling Center in your County through Election Day where you can register to vote and then vote in person or pick up a ballot. Check with your County Clerk for Voter Service and Polling Center locations.

Change of Address if already Registered

- On-line at GoVoteColorado.gov by the 8th day before the election in Colorado.
- By mail with a letter or form furnished by the County Clerk and received no later than the 8th day before the election.
- In person at any time when open, including Election Day, at:
 - Your County Clerk's office, or
 - Voter Service & Polling Center in your county of residence

Verify Your Voter Registration at GoVoteColorado.gov

VOTING

Ballots Mailed to Registered Voters

- Voters may complete the ballot and return it by mail or take it to a drop-off location. You do not have to vote on every race or question; the rest of your votes will still be counted.
- Completed mail ballots must be received by the county clerk no later than 7PM on Election Day
- If you do not receive a mail ballot or spoil yours, you may request a replacement from your County Clerk, or vote in person at a Voter Service and Polling Center.

Voter Service and Polling Centers (VSPC)

These Centers are located in each county to provide election services. Services include:

- Voter registration at any time up to and including Election Day,
- Voters may change their address if registered elsewhere in Colorado,
- Voters may drop off their completed ballot.
- Voters may surrender their ballot and vote in person.

NEW Election Laws

- Parolees are eligible to vote in all elections.
- You must be at least 18 years of age to vote in any election.

Identification Forms Accepted

Identification is required to vote at all polling locations. First time voters voting by mail may need to submit identification. All forms of ID must show a Colorado Address. Acceptable ID forms are:

- Valid Colorado driver's license
- Valid Colorado identification card
- Valid U.S. passport
- Employee ID card from a government agency with photo
- FAA photo pilot's license
- Valid U.S. military card with photo
- Copy of current utility bill, government paycheck or other government document with current address
- Certificate of Degree of Indian or Native Alaskan Blood
- Valid Medicare or Medicaid card
